Space limited. Preregistration encouraged

This workshop presents Natasha's latest user-friendly ideas and interventions about how to put AEDP theory and technique into practice. Through videotaped clinical material, Natasha will illustrate how to help clients stay with it (their internal experience) and with me (the therapist and relationship). Learning to stay, how long to stay and how and why to keep coming back will all be addressed. An updated and expanded intervention hand-out will offer specific language for each step of the way.

Natasha, an engaging teacher, is noted for her ability to translate AEDP theory into user-friendly steps, and for her enthusiastic belief that the mechanisms of the magic of AEDP are teachable and therefore learnable skills.

Master Class: Saturday, November 16, 9:00am-1:00pm

Limited to 25, Friday seminar attendance is required

Class fee $100
