

Dreaming Hope: Accelerated Experiential Dynamic Psychotherapy
& The Natural Creativity of the Sleeping Self
Advanced Skills and Supervision Workshop

Dates: Saturday, October 31, 2015

Time: 9:00AM - 5:00PM

In this one-day advanced clinical training day, Dr. Marsolais will present and comment upon clinical work which demonstrates the distinctive possibilities, capacities and challenges a therapist encounters in working with the dreams of clients who have experienced complex and/or early relational trauma and who also have significant experience with spiritual practice. This day builds on day one but is also open to those who just attend this day alone. Because this is an advanced training it is only open to those who have attended AEDP Immersion and/or Essential Skills.

There will be opportunity for 3-4 group participants to present videotape of their own clinical work and receive supervision from Miriam and Dale Trimble. Tapes of work with early, complex and/or relational trauma are particularly welcome. But the supervision times are open to anyone who is inspired to show their work and receive supportive feedback from two experienced AEDP faculty members. If you are interested in presenting, please contact Dale Trimble, dale@daletrimble.com, for further information and guidance.

This advanced training is limited to 25 participants. Register early.

15% discount for attending this day as well as day one.
